

Beach Area

- Beach furniture is for the exclusive use of Beachplace residents and their accompanied guests, and may not be used to store extra towels, beach bags or other material
- Beach chairs lounges and umbrellas may not be reserved.
- Beach users are responsible for returning chairs to the high ground. Chairs are not permitted in the Gulf waters. Do not remove chairs from the beach and do not take them south of the Building #9 crossover or North of building #1. Umbrellas and stands are not to be moved.
- An attendant or lifeguard does not monitor the beach at Beachplace. Use it at your own risk. Never swim alone. The beach is public property up to the high water line.
- Wash sand from feet, shoes and personal items when leaving the beach. Foot showers and hoses are available at each crossover. Tracking sand into the buildings damages the floors and other furnishings and exhibits extremely poor manners.
- Open fires are prohibited on the beach. Cookouts on the beach are permitted as long as charcoal is used in some type of grill. (Town Code)
- Topless sunbathing is against Longboat Key Town Codes.
